Seize the Day at The Jackson House Inn Vermont
The Carpe Diem Package, a Custom Mini Vacation Summer 2007

Woodstock, Vermont...May 28, 2007...Life is short. Seize the day. The AAA Four-Diamond Jackson House Inn on the outskirts of Woodstock, Vermont, celebrates summer with the Carpe Diem Package. The package includes two nights accommodations, breakfast, tax, gratuities, and a special price on a prix fixe dinner in the restaurant, presented by Executive Chef Jason Merrill, one of New England's most celebrated chefs. Because seizing the day means something different to everybody, the Carpe Diem Package is a flexible, customized mid-week getaway where guests choose from dozens of local activities, from hiking the Appalachian Trail to antiquing.

Sporting activities include kayaking, canoeing, fly fishing, hiking, biking, golf, and tennis, to name a few. On the grounds, guests swim in the freshwater pond, enjoy the natural beauty of the property, relax on the front porch with a book borrowed from the inn's library, or cocoon in comfortable, elegantly-appointed accommodations.

The Carpe Diem Package starts at $575 for guest rooms and $775 for suites and is available through September 3, 2007 (Labor Day Weekend) for Sunday through Wednesday arrivals. Additional nights are available for $190/$250.
